

Reading Groups

PHILOSOPHY & ECONOMICS

Students of all study programmes are invited to join one or more of the new Reading Groups in Philosophy & Economics. Each group will discuss classic as well as more recent titles in the field of philosophy, economics or philosophy and economics—see below a list of the inaugural three books. These are groups organised by students for students so feel free to join if you have an interest in the subject, want to catch up on your reading or simply wish to read, think and discuss in a communal environment. The first meetings will be held in the second half of May. To join, send questions or comments, receive updates on meeting times and places, or suggest future book titles, please sign up via the emails below.

PARFIT

Derek Parfit's work on ethics, rationality, and identity, Reasons and Persons, will be the first book in the PHILOSOPHY Reading Group.

Sign up:
ubt.philosophy.reading.group@gmail.com

MAIR

The PHILOSOPHY & ECONOMICS Reading Group will start with Peter Mair's posthumous Ruling the Void: The Hollowing of Western Democracy.

Sign up:
ubt.pande.reading.group@gmail.com

KEYNES

We will kick off the ECONOMICS Reading Group with John Maynard Keynes' classic The General Theory of Employment, Interest and Money.

Sign up:
ubt.economics.reading.group@gmail.com