AIRPLANE

International guests will find that a flight to Nuremberg will be most convenient as it is the closest airport to Bayreuth. Bayreuth is almost equidistant from the Munich and Frankfurt a.M. airports.

RAILWAY

The journey from the airport to Bayreuth will require you to take a train.

FROM NUREMBERG TO BAYREUTH

Once you reach the Nuremberg Airport, you can proceed to the central train station by taking the metro. The line U2 to “Nürnberg Hbf (Hauptbahnhof)” (German for: Nuremberg central train station) is the train that you need to board. At the “Nürnberg Hauptbahnhof” station, you will have to disembark and take a regional express train (RE) from here to Bayreuth. This last train ride will approximately take between 1 and 1.5 hours. You will have to leave the train at “Bayreuth Hauptbahnhof” station, which is the main train station in Bayreuth and the only stop in Bayreuth.

Note, that the German word “Hauptbahnhof” sometimes is abbreviated by “HBF”.

FROM MUNICH TO BAYREUTH

Once you reach the Munich Airport, you can take a train to get to the city center of Munich, where you will have to board a train headed to Nuremberg. You will have to take the train to “München Hauptbahnhof” (central train station). From there, you will be able to take another train connection that directly brings you to “Nürnberg Hauptbahnhof” (central train station in Nuremberg). It will take you between 1 and 1.5 hours to get to Nuremberg from the main train station in Munich. Once in Nuremberg, you can proceed to Bayreuth by following the steps listed above (section 2.1).

FROM FRANKFURT TO BAYREUTH

Once you reach the Frankfurt a.M. Airport, you need to take the train to get to “Frankfurt Hauptbahnhof” (central train station Frankfurt), from where you can catch a direct train to Nuremberg. Depending on the train, it will take you approximately 2 – 2.5 hours to get to “Nürnberg Hauptbahnhof” (central train station in Nuremberg). Once in Nuremberg, you can proceed to Bayreuth by following the steps listed above (section 2.1).

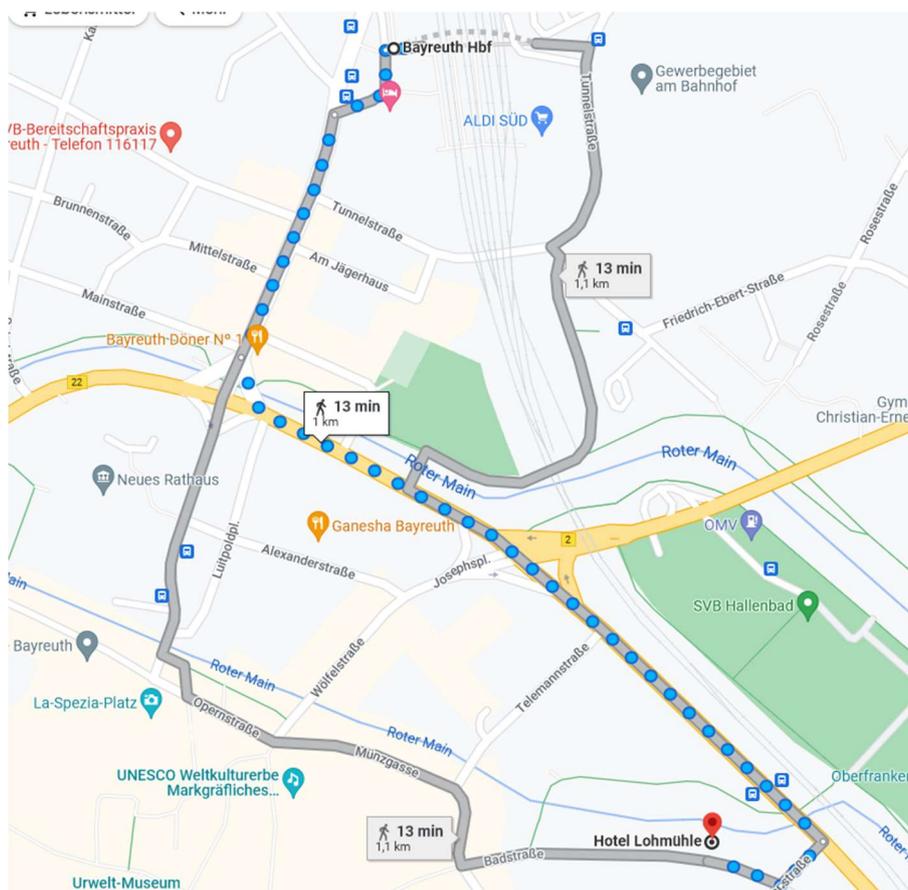

TO THE HOTEL "LOHMÜHLE"

BY CAR

BY FOOT

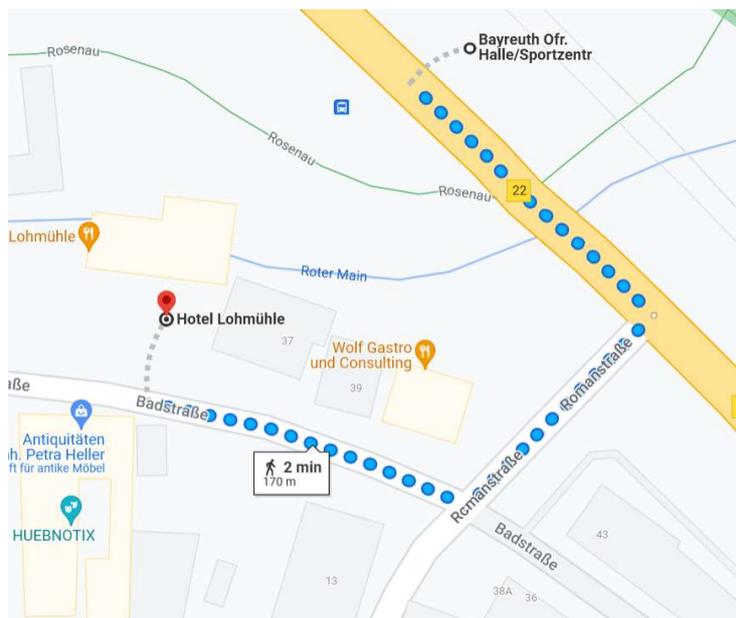

Distances are very short in Bayreuth. It takes less than 20 minutes to walk from the train station to the hotel "Lohmühle". You can simply follow the dotted blue line on the map below for walking to the hotel.

BY BUS

To get to the hotel “Lohmühle” by bus you can use the bus stop in front of the central train station. You can use the busses number 302 (direction: Z O H - St. Johannes (Eremitage)) or 316 (direction: Campus) and exit the bus at Oberfrankenhalle/Sportzentrum. After exiting the bus turn right into the Romanstraße and then immediately right again into the Badstraße. The hotel will be on the right-hand side.

Further information about the time schedule and alternative routes, please check the website of the vgn (www.vgn.de).

BY CAB

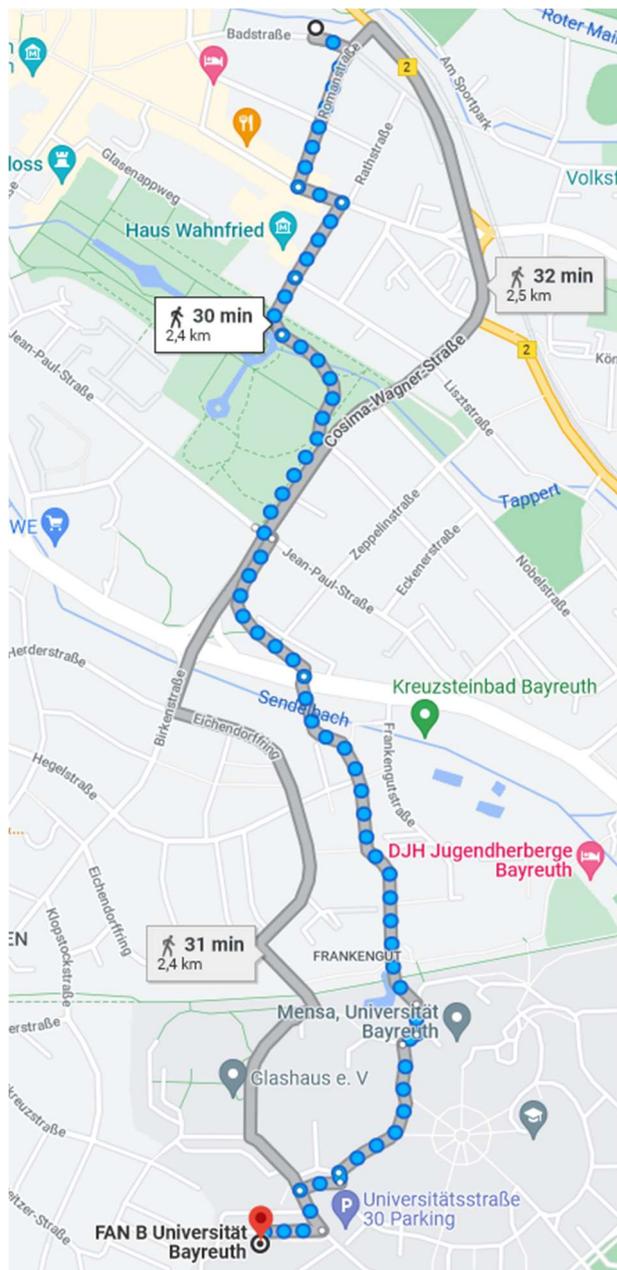

Usually, there are many cabs available in front of the central train station. Please ask the driver to drop you off at the hotel “Lohmühle”. The address is: Badstraße 37, 95444 Bayreuth.

FROM THE HOTEL "LOHMÜHLE" TO THE VENUE

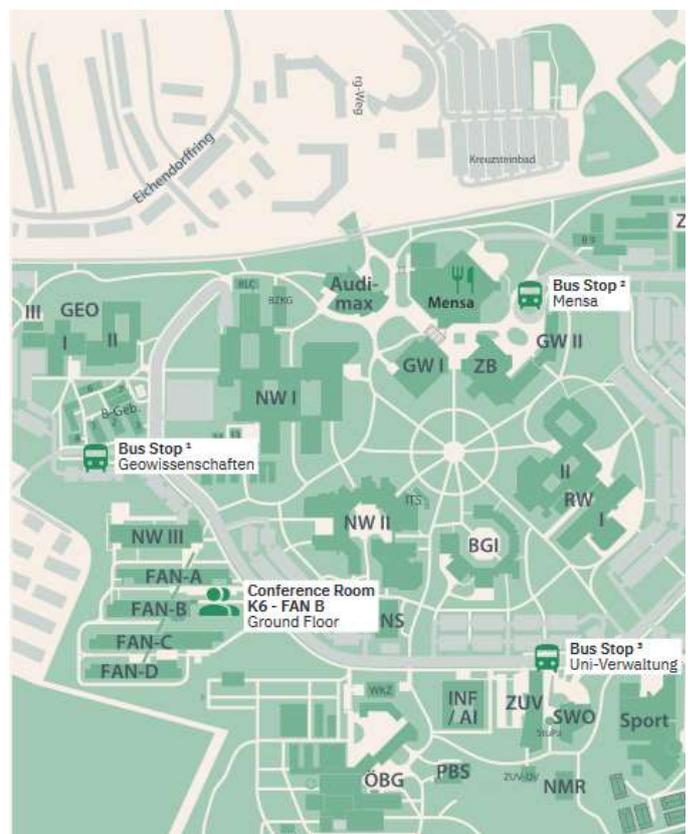

Distances in Bayreuth are very short. You can decide whether to walk to the venue or take the bus or a cab. The workshop will take place in the FAN B building at the Faculty of Engineering Science at the campus of the University of Bayreuth.

BY FOOT

It takes around 30 minutes to walk to the Faculty of Engineering Science. On the map below you can see the way to the University of Bayreuth. First, you need to head east on Badstraße towards Romanstraße, turn right onto Romanstraße and follow it for 230m.

BY BUS

There is a bus stop near to the hotel. First, head east on Badstraße towards Romanstraße. Afterwards, turn left and you will see the bus stop “Oberfrankenhalle/Sportzentrum” on the left street sight next to the traffic lights. You can use the bus line 304 (direction: Birken - Universität) and exit at the station “Geowissenschaften” or “Uni-Verwaltung”. Once you reach the bus stop please follow the map below. Inside the FAN B, follow the signs to conference room K6 on the ground floor.

Further information about the time schedule and alternative routes, please check the website of the vgn (www.vgn.de).

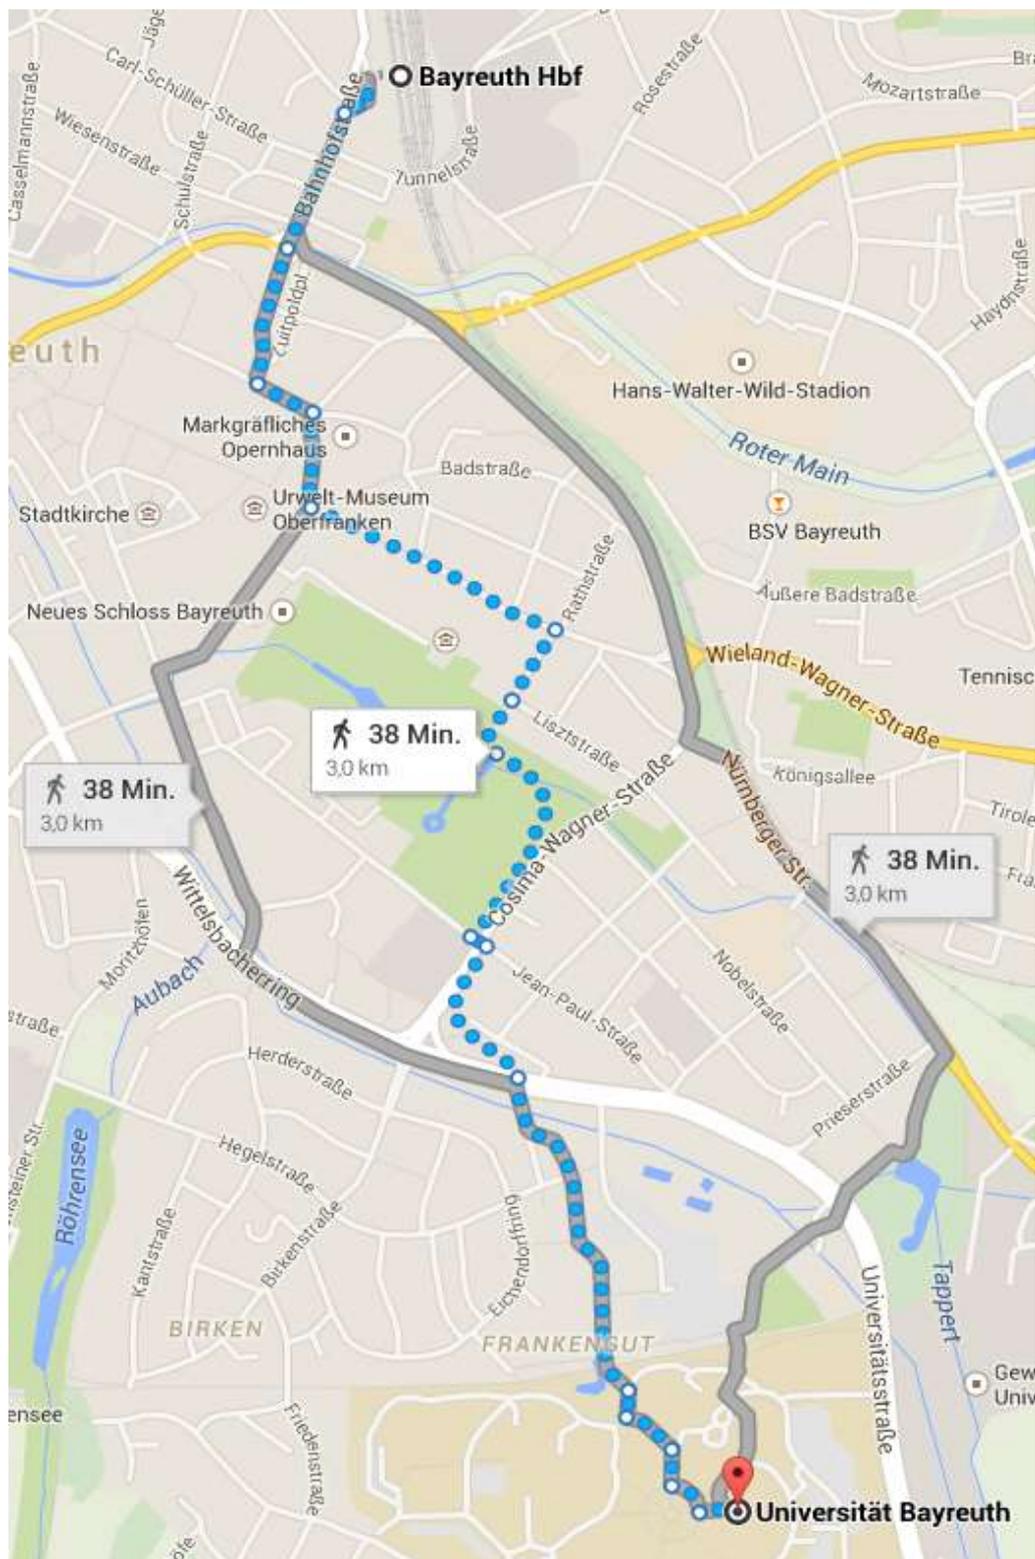

If you decide to use a cab for going to the venue it will cost approximately 10€. Ask the driver to drop you off at the “FAN B building at the Faculty of Engineering Science”. In German: “FAN B Gebäude der Fakultät für Ingenieurwissenschaften der Universität Bayreuth”. That is the building where you will find the conference room K6 on the ground floor where our workshop will take place. The economics department and the Chair of International Macroeconomics is located at the RW I-building.
